

Table and Floor Lamps

Task lighting should be set up 12 to 24 inches away from your working or reading area to be easy enough to reach but far enough not to interfere with the work space. The bottom of the shade or light source should be positioned just below eye level.